

GET IT

Mary Davis Jr. 2008 / All rights reserved © Music written by W. Van Emmerik, M.S. van Emmerik, lyrics by M.S. van Emmerik

*We're living life just like a game
Throwing the dice, party everyday
Acting like a fool to make a name
Forgetting tomorrow
We live (for) today*

The more we have the more we'll try to get Seems we're never satisfied with what we have Needing entertainment day and night to fill our minds Close our eyes, pretending we're blind

*We show off for the world to see
That we're living out our dream, in our own philosophy
How come we still believe our fantasy
When half us is dying, living life in poverty*

*Now what we want we cannot have
And what we need we'll never get
When we're too blind to see that the writing's on the wall
Gotta listen to the call*

*When money turns us into VIPs
The fruits we seem to bear are hate and greed Ego's bigger than our car Turns us on, that's how we are I'm just wondering how we got this far (so far)*

*Cause it's so easy to see, how it once was meant to be Love each other like you love yourself
Is what will make us free*

*Peace of mind
Now is the time
Change will come today
When love is on its way*

*We show off for the world to see
That we're living out our dream, in our own philosophy
How come we still believe our fantasy
When half us is is dying, living life in poverty*

*Now what we want we cannot have
And what we need we'll never get
When we're too blind to see that the writing's on the wall
Gotta listen to the call*

*Calling, there's a calling
Calling, there's a calling*

*Gotta listen to the call,
why don't we get it*

FRIENDS

Mary Davis Jr. 2008 / All rights reserved © Music & lyrics written by M.S. van Emmerik

*Such a beautiful day and life just seems to be so perfectly ok I know it sounds cliché but then I met you I didn't plan to but something made us, ooh
And when our eyes met something started moving deep inside
I started thinking in my mind*

*If only we could be more than best friends
I wish that we could see how the story would end
But I gotta let you go, know you're beautiful,
you can't be mine*

*So we stopped and started talking, walking, strolling & enjoying the day Until the sun set and the moon just lit our way
And then I started realizing this emotion feels so strong but you love your baby at home, so I know we can't go on*

I wish that we could see how the story would end
If only we could be more than best friends
I wish that we could see how the story would end
But I gotta let you go, know you're beautiful,
you can't be mine*

*So strange how love can take you to place
You didn't even know it was there Until you have to face it*

*Hey you, maybe another time, another day
What's gonna be for you and me who knows Is gonna be ok*

*We will always be best friends
We will always be best friends...*

WAKE UP

Mary Davis Jr. 2008 / All rights reserved © Music & lyrics written by M.S. van Emmerik

*When I woke up this morning, sleep still in my eyes
I realized I had to hurry 'cause I gotta be in time Chills are running all over my body when I made myself some tea
And my brain started to work when my eyes opened slowly
Close the door behind me when you're crossing my mind
You're like a melody that keeps coming back every day
When I try to find my way through the city so big It makes me feel so small
But I know you're somewhere out there I only need to, need to*

*Wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake up*

*Pretending you're right by my side, pretending that you'll see me working hard all day long to find you set me free from daily worries
And take me to a place, but instead I'm feeling blind
I'm trying so hard to concentrate to get you off my mind
What if you're just a fantasy, my remedy stuck in this melody
Then why don't you leave me before you drive me crazy!
Sleeping with my eyes wide open, waiting for my wakeup call
I need to catch you somewhere in this place
I only need to, need to*

*Wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake up*

*Wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake up*

*Need to find you Gotta meet you
Somewhere in this place before I wake up show me where you're hiding
I know you're in this place*

*When your eyes are crossing mine I know I will find you and when my heartbeat keeps on skipping all the time I feel your fire burning so strong
It makes me wanna run away
It makes me wanna stay
I try to hide but I long for more
I don't know what you've done to me
I never played this game before*

*Wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake up*

CALL ME

Mary Davis Jr. 2008 / All rights reserved © Music & lyrics written by M.S. van Emmerik

*Why don't you call me (ooh, call me)
Why don't you call me (ooh, call me)
You said you would call me (ooh, call me)
So why don't you call me (ooh, call me)*

*It's not that you were that special
It's not that you looked that good
I can think of better looking man in my neighbourhood*

*Your jokes were not that funny
I've heard them all before*

*But there was something burning in your eyes
That has touched my soul*

*Oh I wish we never met
And I'd love to forget about all you said
But my mind is playing tricks on me
Can't stop the beating of my heart in me
Now I'm waiting for my ringtone melody
To play, so why don't you...*

*Why don't you call me (ooh, call me)
Why don't you call me (ooh, call me)
You said you would call me (ooh, call me)
So why don't you call me (ooh, call me)*

*I'm just busy living my life
Wanna keep on doing the things the way I do
But since the night we met Even the postman reminds me of you*

*I have no interest in your life
Never thought of it before
So when I gave you my number
I must have been out of my mind for sure*

*Oh I can't stand myself
Oh really think I need some serious help
But my mind is playing tricks on me
Can't stop the beating of my heart in me
Since I'm waiting for that stupid ringtone melody
To play, so why don't you...*

*Why don't you call me (ooh, call me)
Why don't you call me (ooh, call me)
You said you would call me (ooh, call me)
So why don't you call me (ooh, call me)*

*Ooh...can't stop thinking about you Anymore
Ooh...can't stop dreamin' about you That's for sure*

*Why don't you call me (ooh, call me)
Why don't you call me (ooh, call me)
You said you would call me (ooh, call me)

RIGHT NOW

Mary Davis Jr. 2008 / All rights reserved © Music & lyrics written by M.S. van Emmerik

*Dreamed about you last night
Don't know the dream anymore
But I remember you face, your beautiful smile the sound of your voice, your beautiful eyes Baby you're beautiful, so beautiful, so fine*

Since the day you're around I don't know what to do You turned my life upside down, you've got me so confused

*Right now, right now, right now, I do
Right now, right now, right now, I do*

*You're like an angel from above,
I don't know if you're real
I hear you whisper my name
Marleen, Marleen*

*Now baby hold me, closely,
It's all right, It's ok, heey*

*And I don't know myself no more no matter what I do
I lost my mind, I'm going blind
I was hypnotized by you*

*Right now, right now, right now, I do
Right now, right now, right now, I do*

Your eyes, your hands, your smile make me feel you love, your touch, you're so beautiful ooooh....!

Mirror

Mary Davis Jr. 2008 / All rights reserved © Music & lyrics written by M.S. van Emmerik

I see your face inside the water reflections touch my eyes and when the wind blows through the trees your voice speaks to the skies

*I see myself in a mirror reminds me of your care and when the sun touches my skin
I know that you're there*

*I see your shadows on the wall
I hear your voice, my name you call let your song fill my soul when you lead me I will go*

*I will go, I will follow touching your hand
I don't know where, I don't know when but when You take me I will follow trusting the sand will blossom like a rose*

FREEDOM

Mary Davis Jr. 2008 / All rights reserved © Music & lyrics written by M.S. van Emmerik

*I could never, never ever give up on the songs I sing
'Cause my songs are my freedom
Like flowers in the sun*

*I don't want to live in a fantasy
Looking at my life I see it's pure reality
Waking up every morning realizing I'm free There's a new day and I'm thankful that I just can be me!*

*Don't you ever,
never ever give up on the songs you sing
'Cause your songs are your freedom
Like butterflies in the wind*

*I have hope, I have dreams, tomorrow will be mine
But I'm not gonna wait
'cause I know today it's fine for me to see, that everything I do
Who I am and who I'll be was designed so beautifully*

*Never, never be afraid to live your life and to love
Never, never be afraid to live your life and to be loved*

*Everybody, let your heart speak
Sing your song out Sing it loud!*

*Don't you ever,
never ever give up on the songs you sing
'Cause your songs are your freedom
Like butterflies in the wind*
